You will also be supporting the marketing team in promotion of the programs as the European cultural specialist.

ABOUT US

Culture Fox is a young, Delhi based company that aims to enable you to explore and experience the art and culture of different geographies through short genre-specific art programs. These programs are a combination of artistic workshops, global locations and creative experiences. For more information please visit <http://culturefox.co/>

REQUIREMENTS

- Interest in art mediation, cultural education and intercultural exchange
- Knowledge about the cultural scene and/or contacts to art institutions in the Netherlands, Belgium or other parts of Europe
- Experience in project management (organization and execution) and a hand on approach towards work
- Ability to work independently with a structured working style, resilience and cultural adaptability
- Very good Dutch and English skills in speaking and writing ADDITIONAL PLUS
- Experience and knowledge about India and Indian culture
- Additional languages appreciated (besides Dutch and English)

WE OFFER

- International experience in the field of cultural management and art education
- Intercultural and interdisciplinary work environment
- The possibility to be part of and also shape a young, creative company
- The internship itself is unpaid, but there will be rent allowance up to € 200
- After the 6 months of Internship, a full time opportunity to work with Culture Fox can be mutually explored

If you are looking for a young and dynamic Startup in the international cultural space and are interested in an internship where you can develop your skills and take over responsibilities, apply now to join our team by sending your application to info@culturefox.co
