

Young Africa Apeldoorn

Young Africa (YA) is looking for interns to support the YA Skills Training Centres in Mozambique, Zimbabwe or Namibia. Geplaatst 23 maart 2016

Do you feel like to put your knowledge to use to change the future of youngsters in Africa? NGO Young Africa offers internships to enthusiastic students!

Young Africa offers skills training for employability and entrepreneurship in self-sustainable centres. Our headquarters are in the Netherlands. We teach young people skills of the hands to be self-reliant, skills of the heart and mind to live with dignity, skills of the soul to live with purpose. 83% of the past pupils finds a job or is self-employed. At YA, all courses are franchised to a local entrepreneur. This method leads to self-sustainability of the centres within five years.

We are looking for interns for our Skills Training Centres in Zimbabwe, Mozambique and Namibia. We offer basic accommodation at the centres. Our conditions are:

- Minimum age of 21 years
- Stable health
- Minimum stay of 3 months
- Volunteers pays his/her own expenses for travel and stay
- For Mozambique: basic knowledge of Portuguese.

If you are interested, you send an application letter with CV, explaining your motivation and how you feel you could contribute to the project and its youngsters to gonneke.campen@youngafrica.org We will invite you to have a conversation with two board members of Young Africa International to discuss possibilities. Have a look at our website for more information: www.youngafrica.org or www.youngafrica.nl