

The Embassy of the Arab Republic of Egypt in The Hague is looking for a new colleague!

The Embassy is looking for someone to take over the position of Secretary and Translator for the Ambassador.

Expectations: you should be able to speak fluent Dutch and English in order to provide precise translations from Dutch to English and to assess certain issues from a Dutch perspective.

Your other tasks would involve making appointments and arrangements that aid the general flow of the Embassy; from facilitating, the Embassy's input to the annual Embassy National Day, to organizing the ambassador's meetings, and providing political critical analyses of current affairs.

Due to the context of an Embassy and the content of the translations, it is necessary to be knowledgeable in current affairs, international relations, and politics. It goes without saying that having an interest for and understanding of Egypt, or the Middle East at large, aids your employability for this starter position at the Embassy.

Lastly, it is important that you have finished at least a Bachelor degree and that you are available for a full time position, working 36 hours a week, for an extended period of time (3 month probationary period & at least one year).

Your starting date is to be determined, but as soon as possible.

Would you be a good match? Please send me your CV and motivation to info@ambeg.nl'

Looking forward hearing from you!

Best regards,

Sanne
