

Entry requirements for a specialisation or track within the MSc Psychology / (research)

For students with a Bachelor in Psychology from Leiden University the following specialisation courses are part of the entry requirements for the specific specialisations.

Entry requirements master's specialisations
Master's specialisation	Specialisation courses
Applied Cognitive Psychology	Applied Cognitive Psychology
Child and Adolescent Psychology	Clinical Child and Adolescent Psychology
Clinical Neuropsychology	Clinical Neuropsychology
Clinical Psychology	Clinical Psychology
Economic and Consumer Psychology	Economic and Consumer Psychology
Health and Medical Psychology	Health and Medical Psychology
Methodology and Statistics in Psychology	Expected as of 2020/2021: Good research practices and Causal Inference in Field Experiments
Occupational Health Psychology	Health and Medical Psychology or Social Psychology in Organisations or Applied Cognitive Psychology
School Psychology	School Psychology
Social and Organisational Psychology	Social Psychology in Organisations

Entry requirements research master's tracks
Master's track	Entry requirements
Clinical and Health Psychology	Clinical Psychology and entry requirements
Cognitive Neuroscience	Cognitive neuroscience or minor Brain and Cognition and entry requirements
Development Psychology	Clinical Child and Adolescent Psychology and entry requirements
Social and Organisation Psychology	Social Psychology in Organisations and entry requirements