Study Abroad Film Contest

Dear Student,

Would you like to win a financial contribution to your study abroad adventure? Join the 3rd edition of the Leiden University Study Abroad Film Contest and win €100!

How to join the contest

Capture your study abroad experience in a short video. The goal is to inspire and stimulate other students to study or do an internship abroad by capturing your favorite dimensions of your study abroad experience (educational, cultural, social).

Be creative!

You are free to create your own style! You could make an entire "selfie stick video", use a documentary video style, make an artistic impression of your experience. In short: BE CREATIVE!

For inspiration check out the videos from last year:

Terms & Conditions

- The images should reflect the country or city you are in
- Language: English (or subtitles in English)
- Duration: 1.5 – 2.5 minutes
- Content should be appropriate for online publication, including on Facebook
- Do not use copyrighted music in your video. (Youtube blocks these video's which makes your film invisible to others)
- File format: preferably MP4, no WMV
- File size: 2GB max
- The video must be your own production
- You may submit 1 video

Please note that by participating in this Study Abroad Film Contest your video may be published online (website & social media) and may have a broad audience.

Submitting your video

Submit your video through wetransfer.com, addressed to studyabroad@sea.leidenuniv.nl.

Please include the following details in your message: your name, e-mail, year of study and degree programme, your study abroad country and exchange university/institution.

Deadline for submission: 1 October 2017

Selection

The videos will be screened by the International Relations Team before they are published online. Approved videos will be broadcast at our Facebook page for online voting and during the Study Abroad Festival on 13 October. There will be an Audience award and a Jury award, each worth €100. We will contact the winners by email.

We look forward to receiving your contributions! If you have any questions, please contact us at studyabroad@sea.leidenuniv.nl

Kind regards
The International Relations Team
